Books on human relations from Plenum

THE LANGUAGE OF SCIENCE
Plenum
PUBLISHING CORPORATION

Plenum Publishing Corporation
227 West 17th Street,
New York, N.Y. 10011

Bulk Rate
U.S. Postage
Paid
New York, N.Y.
Permit No. 11031

07870-NEL-B0-002
T NELSON
BOX 3
SHOOKEYS MOUNTAIN, NJ
07870

Books on
HUMAN RELATIONS

D-80-005-dom

Contents

Research and Practice in Social Skills Training, Bellack and Hersen, Eds. 1
Social Indicators of Well-Being, Andrews and Witney 1
Youth, Alcohol, and Social Policy, Blane and Chafetz, Eds. 2
School Desegregation, Stephan and Feagin, Eds. 3, 4
Alcohol and Drug Problems in Women, Kalant, Ed. 4
Social Cognition and the Acquisition of Self, Lewis and Brooks-Gunn 5
Uniqueness, Snyder and Franklin ... 6
Men Who Rape, Groth and Birnbaum 7
Rape Crisis Intervention Handbook, McCombie, Ed. 8
Becoming Female, Kopp, Ed. ... 9, 10
Woman Patient, Notman and Nadelson, Eds. 10, 11
The American Family, Reiss and Hoffman, Eds. 11
Toward a New Definition of Health, Ahmed and Coelho, Eds. ... 12
Handbook of Marital Therapy, Liberman, Wheeler, de Visser, Kuehnel, and Kuehnel, Eds. 12, 13
Family Therapy, Andolfi 13, 14
Handbook of Sex Therapy, LoPiccolo and LoPiccolo, Eds. 14
Social Exchange, Gergen, Greenberg, and Willis, Eds. 15

Plenum Publishing Corporation
227 West 17th Street, New York, N.Y. 10011
United Kingdom: Black Arrow House,
2 Chandos Road, London NW10 6NR, England

Research and Practice in Social Skills Training

Edited by Alan S. Bellack, Clinical Psychology Center, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Michel Hersen, Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

Contents

General Issues
Fundamentals of interpersonal behaviour—a social–psychological perspective, Peter Trower. Sociopsychological factors in psychopathology, Alan E. Kazdin. Behavioral assessment of social skills, Alan S. Bellack.
Treatment
Modification of social deficits in children, Roger C. Rinn and Allan Markle. Modification of heterosocial skills deficits, John P. Galassi and Merna Dee Galassi. Modification of skill deficits in psychiatric patients, Michel Hersen. Assertion training for women, Marsha M. Linehan and Kelly J. Egan. Communication skills in married couples, Gary R. Birchler.
Methodological Issues
Social skills: methodological issues and future directions, James P. Curran.
Index.

370 pages, illus., 1979
$19.95 ($23.94 outside US)

Social Indicators of Well-Being

Americans' Perceptions of Life Quality

By Frank M. Andrews
and Stephen Withey, Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

"One judges the merit of a scholar's work on the basis of its significance for the solution of basic problems in a given field and the feedback one receives about it from other scholars. On both accounts the work of Andrews and Withey warrants very high marks. Whether one follows these authors or goes one's own way, one will undoubtedly learn something valuable from this book."

—Alex C. Michalos, University of Guelph, Ontario, Canada

478 pages, illus., 1976
$25.00 ($30.00 outside US)

Youth, Alcohol, and Social Policy

Edited by Howard T. Blane, University of Pittsburgh and Morris E. Chafetz, Health Education Foundation, Washington, D.C.

An up-to-date examination of the epidemiology, theoretical models, and social policy implications of drinking behavior among young adults and late adolescents, this volume also offers strategies for reducing alcohol problems among youth.

Contents

Epidemiology of Drinking Practices among Adolescents and Young Adults
Middle-aged alcoholics and young drinkers, Howard T. Blane. Patterns of alcohol consumption among the young: high school, college, and general population studies, Henry Wechsler. Alcohol problems among civilian youth and military personnel, J. Michael Polich.
Theoretical Models of Drinking among Adolescents and Young Adults Developmental aspects of drinking through the young adult years, Robert A. Zucker. Ecological factors in drinking, Thomas C. Harford. Sex roles and adolescent drinking, Sharon C. Wilsnack and Richard W. Wilsnack.
Public Policy Implications of Drinking Problems among Youth Priorities in minimizing alcohol problems among young people, Reginald C. Smart. The impact of sociopolitical systems on teenage alcoholism, Richard E. Horman. Toward national policy for health education, Lawrence W. Green.
Strategies for Reducing Drinking Problems among Youth Strategies for reducing drinking problems among youth: college programs, David P. Kraft. U.S. military alcohol abuse prevention and rehabilitation programs, John E. Killeen. Behavioral strategies for reducing drinking among young adults, Peter M. Miller.
Index.

436 pages, 1979
$27.50 ($33.00 outside US)

Perspectives in Social Psychology
A Series of Texts and Monographs
Series Editor: Elliot Aronson

School Desegregation

Past, Present, and Future

Edited by Walter G. Stephan, New Mexico State University
and Joe R. Feagin, The University of Texas at Austin

The Brown Decision—perhaps the most important political, social and legal event in American twentieth century history—has spawned many polemics on the subject of desegregation. In the quarter century since Brown, contemporary society has achieved some distance from this controversial issue, and a variety of opposing perspectives has emerged.

School Desegregation: Past, Present, and Future presents a sophisticated analysis of the varying views on school desegregation. Educators, sociologists, psychologists, political scientists, and lawyers focus on aspects of school desegregation relevant to their specialty area. Topics covered include the history of school desegregation and the basis for the Brown Decision, the evolution of desegregation law since Brown, the serendipitous effects of school desegregation, and current attitudes toward desegregation considered within the context of American ethnic relations. Techniques for implementing desegregation and the relationship of school desegregation to residential segregation and other aspects of discrimination are considered, as well as the future of school desegregation. A comprehensive bibliography with references from 1650 to 1979 completes the work.

A wide variety of professionals and members of the general public will find this multidisciplinary volume crucial to their understanding of this momentous and topical issue.

Contents

Historical Background of School Desegregation
A brief historical overview of school desegregation, Walter G. Stephan. School desegregation: a political–economic perspective, Joe R. Feagin. The serendipitous effects of school desegregation, Susan L. Greenblatt and Charles V. Willie.

Problems and Issues Concerning School Desegregation
From prohibiting segregation to requiring integration: developments in the law of race and the schools since Brown, Lino A. Graglia. Nondiscrimination and beyond: the search for principle in Supreme Court desegregation decisions, Mark G. Yudof. On the future of school desegregation: a new American dilemma? Ray C. Rist. School desegregation and ethnicity, Andrew M. Greeley. On democracy and school integration, Arthur L. Stinchcombe and D. Garth Taylor. White flight and the future of school desegregation, David J. Armor. School segregation and residential segregation: a social science statement, Karl Taeuber.

Implementing Desegregation in the School
Design and redesign of the desegregated school: problems of status, power, and conflict, Elizabeth G. Cohen. Building effective multiethnic schools: evolving models and paradigms, Jane R. Mercer, Peter Iadicola, and Helen Moore. Making school desegregation work, Normal Miller. Index.

approx. 375 pages, illus., 1980
$21.50 ($25.80 outside US)

Research Advances in Alcohol and Drug Problems
Volume 5

Alcohol and Drug Problems in Women

Edited by Oriana Josseau Kalant, Addiction Research Foundation, Toronto, Canada

Alcohol and Drug Problems in Women explores this crucial issue from historical, sociological, physiological, and epidemiological perspectives.

Contents

Introduction and overview, Oriana Josseau Kalant. Temperance and women in 19th century United States, Harry Gene Levine. Sex differences in the prevalence of problem drinking, Roberta G. Ferrence. Sex differences in psychoactive drug use: recent epidemiology, Roberta G. Ferrence and Paul C. Whitehead. Longitudinal studies of alcohol and drug problems: sex differences, Lee N. Robins and Elizabeth M. Smith. Sex differences in the inheritance of alcoholism, Richard P. Swinson. Some behavioral and biological aspects of alcohol problems in women, Nancy K. Mello. Nature and development of alcoholism in women, Wilfred E. Boothroyd. Sex differences in morbidity of alcoholics, Patricia Wilkinson. Sex differences in mortality: a comparison of male and female alcoholics, Wolfgang Schmidt and Robert E. Popham. Alcoholism in women: treatment modalities and outcomes, Helen M. Annis and Carolyn B. Liban. Dependence on psychotropic drugs and analgesics in men and women, David S. Bell. Opiate dependence in women, Catherine A. Martin and William R. Martin. Problems related to the use of tobacco by women, Ellen R. Gritz. Sex differences in the effects of alcohol and other psychoactive drugs on endocrine function: clinical and experimental evidence, Theodore J. Cicero. The effects of alcohol on the fetus and offspring, Henry L. Rosett. The effects of opiates, sedative–hypnotics, amphetamines, cannabis and other psychoactive drugs on the fetus and newborn, Loretta P. Finnegan and Kevin O'Brien Fehr. Index.

approx. 700 pages, illus., 1980
$55.00 ($66.00 outside US)

Social Cognition and the Acquisition of Self

By Michael Lewis and Jeanne Brooks-Gunn, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, New Jersey

Postulating that development is an active process involving plans, intentions, and feelings, as well as a process influenced by biological imperatives and social controls, this book presents the results of recent studies in self recognition. Representations utilized in these studies include mirrors, videotape, and still pictures. Attentional, affective, motor, and verbal behaviors are explored.

Contents

The origins of self. Mirror representations of self. Videotape representations of self and others. Pictorial representations of and others. Verbal labeling of self and others. Individual differences in the expression of self recognition. Self recognition and emotional development. The development of self recognition. Toward a theory of the development of self. The uses of a theory of self. Index.

316 pages, illus., 1979
$19.50 ($23.40 outside US)

Perspectives in Social Psychology
A Series of Texts and Monographs
Series Editor: Elliot Aronson

Uniqueness

The Human Pursuit of Difference

By C. R. Snyder, The University of Kansas
and Howard L. Fromkin, York University, Ontario, Canada

The literature of interpersonal attraction and conformity is replete with theories and data which illustrate how people are attracted to—and behave similarly to—other people. While this literature makes a case for the fact that people want to be similar to others and to "fit in," there are certain situations in which people do behave uniquely. Uniqueness: The Human Pursuit of Difference discusses such uniqueness seeking behavior as a focal counterpoint to the "psychology of sameness."

Contents

Foreword, Philip G. Zimbardo.

A Case for Uniqueness
Literary precedents for uniqueness.

Need for Uniqueness: Theory and Research
Do birds of a feather always flock together? Theory of uniqueness. Corollaries of uniqueness theory: the nature of the comparison to other persons. Individual differences in the need for uniqueness.

Uniqueness Attributes
Commodities as uniqueness attributes. Names as uniqueness attributes. Attitudes and beliefs as uniqueness attributes. Performance as uniqueness-motivated behavior.

Uniqueness-Seeking in Perspective
Deindividuation: loss of uniqueness. Individuation: the pursuit of uniqueness.

Index.

approx. 200 pages, illus., 1980
$16.95 ($20.34 outside US)

Men Who Rape

The Psychology of the Offender

By A. Nicholas Groth, Ph.D., Director, Sex Offender Program, Connecticut Correctional Institution, Somers, Connecticut
with H. Jean Birnbaum, Graduate Program in Criminal Justice, Northeastern University

Forcible sexual assault has become a critical issue in our society, and, increasingly, human service providers are being asked to address this serious social problem. This book is basic reading for anyone whose work brings them into contact with the offender or his victim. Based on over 15 years of extensive clinical experience with more than 500 sexual offenders, Men Who Rape examines the psychological and emotional factors which predispose a person to react to situational and life events with sexual violence. It provides a framework for the developmental histories, the life styles, and the motivations of men who rape and offers guidelines for the identification, diagnostic assessment, and treatment of such offenders in order to help train professionals working in this area.

Contents

Rape: Myths and Realities
Rape: a pseudosexual act. Definition of rape. Rape: a symptom and a crime. Myths about the offender. Myths about the victim. Myths about the remedy. Why do myths about rape persist?

Psychodynamics of Rape
Anger rape. Power rape. Sadistic rape. Incidence. Multiple motives underlying rape.

Clinical Aspects of Rape
Sexual dysfunction. Subjective response. Intoxication. Symptom choice. Diagnostic classification.

Patterns of Rape
Gang rape. Male rape. Child sexual abuse. Rape of the elderly. Marital rape. The adolescent sexual offender. The female offender.

Guidelines for Assessment and Treatment
Clinical evaluation of the offender. Clinical assessment guide. Data sources. Protocol for the clinical assessment of the offender's sexual behavior. Treatment plans.

Index.

225 pages, illus., 1979
$15.00 ($18.00 outside US)

The Rape Crisis Intervention Handbook

A Guide to Victim Care

Edited by Sharon L. McCombie, Director, Rape Crisis Intervention Program, Beth Israel Hospital, Boston, Massachusetts

With the rising incidence of rape in our society, human service providers are increasingly challenged to respond to the special needs of victims of sexual assault. This book provides a basic resource for the practical treatment oriented information sought by professionals who work directly with victims and their families. Up until now there has been no single source for the psychological, medical, and legal guidance essential to successfully meet the multiple needs of rape victims. Drawing upon clinical experience with more than 600 victims seen in crisis intervention, The Rape Crisis Intervention Handbook offers a framework for the crisis counseling, emergency medical treatment, police investigation and court preparation for victims of this violent crime. It examines the psychological and emotional impact of rape not only on victims and their families but on the service providers as well. Understanding of the conflicting emotions and powerful mythology that surround rape is presented as a crucial factor in preparing professionals to work in this area and to ensure the availability of sensitive and effective service.

Contents

Myths and Realities
A cultural perspective on rape, Catherine H. Morrison. The rapist: motivations for sexual violence, A. Nicholas Groth and H. Jean Birnbaum. Rape typology and the coping behavior of rape victims, Ann Wolbert Burgess and Lynda Lytle Holmstrom.

The Hospital Emergency Room
The nursing care of rape victims, Barbara Schuler Gilmore and Janet Weeks Evans. The medical examination: treatment and evidence collection, Henry Klapholz

The Legal System
The police investigation, Peter J. Murphy III. Rape law and the judicial process, Alice E. Richmond. The experience of the rape victim in the courtroom, Alice E. Richmond.

Psychological Overview of Rape Trauma
A crisis theory perspective on rape, Ellen L. Bassuk. Psychodynamic and life-stage considerations of the response to rape, Malkah T. Notman and Carol C. Nadelson.

Psychological Intervention
Counseling rape victims, Sharon L. McCombie and Judith H. Arons. Counseling the mates and families of rape victims, Daniel Silverman and Sharon L. McCombie.

Special Considerations
The child victim, Renee S. Tankenoff Brant. The male counselor and the female rape victim, Daniel Silverman.

Appendices
Guidelines for the nursing care of rape victims in the emergency unit. Guidelines for the medical care of rape victims. Third party rape report. Information for patients coping with sexual assault. Rape questionnaire. Practical facts and suggestions about what to do if raped. Safety precautions to avoid assault.
Index.

approx. 250 pages, illus., 1980
$19.50 ($23.40 outside US)

Women in Context
Development and Stresses

Becoming Female

Perspectives on Development

Edited by Claire B. Kopp, University of California, Los Angeles
In collaboration with Martha Kirkpatrick, University of California, Los Angeles

Drawing from anthropology, genetics, pediatrics, psychiatry, and sociology, as well as psychology, Becoming Female presents a provocative approach to female development highlighting those characteristics, dynamics, and processes that have shaped society's interpretation of "femaleness." Organized into four main sections, the volume traces the factors affecting female development from the ontogenetic periods of infancy through adolescence.

Contents

Identity and the Immediate Environment
Phyllis A. Katz. Growing up black and female, Gloria Johnson Powell. Growing up with a physical handicap, Shirley Sargent. The father–daughter relationship: past, present, and future, Michael E. Lamb, Margaret Tresch Owen, and Lindsay Chase-Lansdale. Mothers and daughters, Phyllis R. Magrab.

Characteristics
Sex-related differences in spatial ability: a developmental psychological view, Lauren Julius Harris. The role of laughter and humor in growing up female, Paul McGhee. The changing nature of female delinquency, Sheila Balkan and Ronald J. Berger. The play of girls, Brian Sutton-Smith. Effects of observed violence on females: a critical review, Susan H. Franzblau.

The Larger Environment
Where are the women geniuses? Up the down escalator, Marilyn Graham and Beverly Birns. Some cross-cultural perspectives on becoming female, Thomas S. Weisner. "On the road to find out": the role music plays in adolescent development, Julie Marks. Portrait of a female on television: some possible effects on children, Norma D. Feshbach, Arline S. Dillman, and Tricia S. Jordan. Dressing up, Shane Adler.

Biological Characteristics
The genetics of sex and its consequences, Kenneth K. Kidd. Physical growth of adolescent girls: patterns and sequence, Margaret S. Faust. Nutrition and women: facts and faddism, Charlotte Neumann.

Index.

481 pages, illus., 1979
$25.00 ($30.00 outside US)

Women in Context
Development and Stresses

The Woman Patient

Medical and Psychological Interfaces

Volume 1
Sexual and Reproductive Aspects of Women's Health Care

Edited by Malkah T. Notman, M.D., Harvard Medical School
and Carol C. Nadelson, M.D., Tufts–New England Medical Center, Boston, Massachusetts

" 'Arm yourself with information' is the strong underlying message of a book overflowing with medical information and psychological insight. The Woman Patient . . . contains some 25 wide-ranging chapters that include essays on genetic counseling, prenatal influences, sexual dysfunctions in the female, breast cancer, and the psychological issues and considerations relating to mastectomy. There is an excellent chapter on the impact of rape, and the one on gynecological surgery is, I believe, the most concise and informative piece of reportage on the subject anywhere."

—Maggie Scarf, The New York Times Book Review

"It is unusual to read a volume such as this which presents current views of experts in the field of health care of particular import to women with the sense of interest and excitement that I felt as I read The Woman Patient. Many chapters are mini-masterpieces, presenting new views and discounting old myths and traditions, illuminating the new relationships that can exist between an informed patient and a skillful, caring physician. . . . It is a book for the well educated consumer, and the provider of health care, male or female, young or old, healthy or ill."

—Elissa P. Benedek, M.D., Center for Forensic Psychiatry, Ann Arbor, Michigan

376 pages, illus., 1978
$19.50 ($23.40 outside US)

The American Family

Dying or Developing

Edited by David Reiss, M.D.
and Howard A. Hoffman, M.D.

A rising divorce rate—widespread child abuse—violence between spouses—what is happening to the American family?

To begin to answer this complex question, noted contributors examine the family as a partner in a dynamic relationship with society at large. They find that the family exerts its own unique force on our social environment, as with the influence of the father–son relationship on the development of America's democratic practices. Exploring this situation from a variety of perspectives, the contributors as a group express a sober yet informed optimism, grounded in the observation that the family in America has an enormous capacity for both innovation and endurance.

Contents

Our concerns about the American family. American historical development and the family. Stratification: class, race, and family. Child development and new family forms. New policies for new families.

264 pages, illus., 1979
$21.95 ($26.34 outside US)

Contents

The Family as an Interactional System
Premises. Toward a redefinition of diagnosis and intervention.
Formation of the Therapeutic System
The therapeutic team. The first session. The therapeutic contract.
Redefinition in Family Therapy
Redefinition of the therapeutic relationship. Redefinition of the context. Redefinition of the problem.
Space and Action in Family Therapy
Nonverbal communication. The meaning of space. Action techniques: sculpting. Children and play in family therapy.
Tasks
Directiveness in family therapy. Restructuring tasks. Paradoxical tasks. Metaphorical tasks.
Examples of Structural Family Therapy
Achieving autonomy: the case of Luciano. A family with an encopretic child.
Bibliography
Index

186 pages, 1979
$19.95 ($23.94 outside US)

Handbook of Sex Therapy

Edited by Joseph LoPiccolo and Leslie LoPiccolo, State University of New York at Stony Brook

The Handbook of Sex Therapy is a unified, integrated source book covering a broad range of therapy approaches designed for the rapid treatment of sexual dysfunction. Vital new perspectives on the causes and treatment of male and female sexual dysfunctions, professional and ethical issues, and sex therapy for special populations such as heart patients and the elderly are offered. The Handbook of Sex Therapy is an essential work for clinicians and for lay persons who wish to gain a better comprehension of this much publicized but still poorly understood subject.

Contents

An overview of sex therapy. The assessment of sexual function and dysfunction. Female orgasmic dysfunction: determinants of female orgasm; treatment of female orgasmic dysfunction. Dyspareunia and vaginismus. Male orgasmic dysfunction. Male erectile dysfunction. Sexual dysfunction in special populations. Group procedures. Comments on sex therapy and other therapeutic approaches to sexual dysfunction. Professional issues. Index.

552 pages, illus., 1978
$29.50 ($35.40 outside US)

Social Exchange
Advances in Theory and Research

Edited by Kenneth J. Gergen, Swarthmore College and Martin S. Greenberg and Richard S. Willis, University of Pittsburgh

Contents

Theoretical Extension
A theory of indebtedness, Martin S. Greenberg. What should be done with equity theory? New approaches to the study of fairness in social relationships, Gerald Leventhal. The search for uniqueness and valuations of scarcity: neglected dimension of value in exchange theory, Howard L. Fromkin. Resource theory: interpersonal behavior, Edna B. Foa and Uriel G. Foa.
Exchange Theory in Specialized Settings
Leadership and social exchange processes, Edwin P. Hollander. The study of organizations through a resource-exchange paradigm, Walter R. Nord. Sex roles, social exchange and couples, Richard R. Willis and Irene Hanson Frieze. An "incremental exchange" perspective on the pair relationship: interpersonal reward and level of involvement, Goerge Levinger and L. Rowell Huessmann.
Critical Analysis
Structural and motivational approaches to social exchange, Harumi Befu. The myth of reciprocity, Frederick L. Pryor and Nelson H. H. Graburn. New developments in operant conditioning and their implications, Barry Schwartz. Exchange theory: the transient and the enduring, Kenneth J. Gergen.
Index.

approx. 300 pages, illus., 1980
$24.50 ($29.40 outside US)

Perspectives in Sexuality
Behavior, Research, and Therapy
Series Editor: Richard Green

Order Form

Please send US/foreign

___ Research and Practice in Social Skills Training
ISBN 0-306-40233-5 $19.95/$23.94

___ Social Indicators of Well-Being
ISBN 0-306-30935-1 $25.00/$30.00

___ Youth, Alcohol, and Social Policy
ISBN 0-306-40253-X $27.50/$33.00

___ School Desegregation
ISBN 0-306-40378-1 $21.50/$25.80

___ Alcohol and Drug Problems in Women
ISBN 0-306-40394-3 $55.00/$66.00

___ Social Cognition and the Acquisition of Self
ISBN 0-306-40232-7 $19.50/$23.40

___ Uniqueness
ISBN 0-306-40376-5 $16.95/$20.34

___ Men Who Rape
ISBN 0-306-40268-8 $15.00/$18.00

___ The Rape Crisis Intervention Handbook
ISBN 0-306-40401-X $19.50/$23.40

___ Becoming Female
ISBN 0-306-40229-7 $25.00/$30.00

___ The Woman Patient
ISBN 0-306-31151-8 $19.50/$23.40

___ The American Family
ISBN 0-306-40117-7 $21.95/$26.34

___ Toward a New Definition of Health
ISBN 0-306-40248-3 $25.00/$30.00

___ Handbook of Marital Therapy
ISBN 0-306-40235-1 $19.50/$23.40

___ Family Therapy
ISBN 0-306-40200-9 $19.95/$23.94

___ Handbook of Sex Therapy
ISBN 0-306-30174-0 $29.50/$35.40

___ Social Exchange
ISBN 0-306-40395-1 $24.50/$29.40

name

address

city state/zip

Mail your order today.

PLENUM PUBLISHING CORPORATION
227 West 17th Street, New York, N.Y. 10011
In United Kingdom: Black Arrow House,
2 Chandos Road, London NW10 6NR England

Important Journals from Plenum

Human Relations

Editor: Eric Trist, University of Pennsylvania

☐ Subscription: Volume 33, 1980
(12 issues) $95.00 ($95.00 outside US)
☐ Please send free examination copy

American Journal of Community Psychology

Editor: John C. Glidewell, University of Chicago

☐ Subscription: Volume 8, 1980
(6 issues) $76.00 ($87.00 outside US)
☐ Institutional rate $76.00 ($87.00 outside US)
☐ Please send free examination copy

Urban Anthropology

Editor: Jack R. Rollwagen, SUNY at Brockport

☐ Subscription: Volume 9, 1980
(4 issues) $18.00 ($21.00 outside US)
☐ Institutional rate $60.00 ($68.00 outside US)
☐ Please send free examination copy

Human Ecology

Editors: Susan H. Lees and Daniel G. Bates, Hunter College of the City University of New York

☐ Subscription: Volume 8, 1980
(4 issues) $29.50 ($34.00 outside US)
☐ Institutional rate $59.00 ($67.00 outside US)
☐ Please send free examination copy

Law and Human Behavior

Editor: Bruce Dennis Sales, University of Nebraska

☐ Subscription: Volume 4, 1980
(4 issues) $22.50 ($26.00 outside US)
☐ Institutional rate $45.00 ($52.00 outside US)
☐ Please send free examination copy

Sex Roles

Editor: Phyllis A. Katz, Institute for Research on Social Problems, Boulder, Colorado

☐ Subscription: Volume 6, 1980
(4 issues) $27.00/$30.00
☐ Institutional rate $72.00/$82.00
☐ Please send free examination copy

name

address

city state/zip

Mail your order today.

PLENUM PUBLISHING CORPORATION
227 West 17th Street, New York, N.Y. 10011